ST PATRICK'S COLLEGE DUBLIN

CASE STUDY

“A vibrant and innovative centre of excellence in Education and the Humanities”

St Patrick's College, Dublin

St Patrick's College is one of the oldest third-level educational institutions in Ireland and has enjoyed a leading position in the area of primary teacher education in Ireland since its foundation in 1875. The design concept were successful in tendering as sole supplier for all furniture within the college's new 'East Building'.

We worked closely with the College's FF&E co-ordinator and senior library staff to select and specify nearly 1400 pieces of furniture. The installation was successfully completed in early 2015.

Top left: Large, soft seating invites visitors to make themselves customer's for meetings, general discussions or just to catch-up. Top middle: Conference desking with comfortable executive seating teaching, conference or workshops. Top right: Comfortable, colourful seating allows students to make themselves feel at home, relax and study in a calming atmosphere. Bottom left: Student study area fitted with classroom style tables paired with stackable slider chairs are perfect for college and universities. Bottom right: Bespoke designed tables allows for maximum work space with minimal use of general space thanks to the shape.
